

Just Food Co-op Donations Request Form

Just Food is pleased to be able to offer small financial and in-kind donations to a variety of local community groups through our Community Donations Program. We generally make donations in the range of $15-$25. Because our budget is limited, we advise you to apply at least two weeks in advance of your event. Priority is given to local organizations and events involved in promoting health, the environment, local food, nutrition issues, or addressing social concerns.

Please feel free to attach additional information such as flyers, posters, announcements, etc. Just Food reserves the right to decline requests if the criteria are not met, for budgetary considerations, or if an organization's stated mission or goals are in conflict with the Just Food Ends Policy or the International Principles of Cooperation. Due to our diverse ownership, we do not give donations for any expressly religious purposes including camps.
